Page 2 - Outside Project

1 - This is the outside of Project Arts Centre.

It is located on East Essex Street in Temple Bar, Dublin 2.

Some people refer to it as "the big blue building".

2 - You can enter through the big glass door.

There is a big blue 'a' on the door. Sometimes there is a security guard standing next to or near the door. There may be some people waiting at the entrance outside.

3 - There is a button to the left of the entrance.

Once you press it the door will open slowly.

After you go into the building, the door will close automatically behind you.

4 - When you go in the building, you will be on the ground floor.

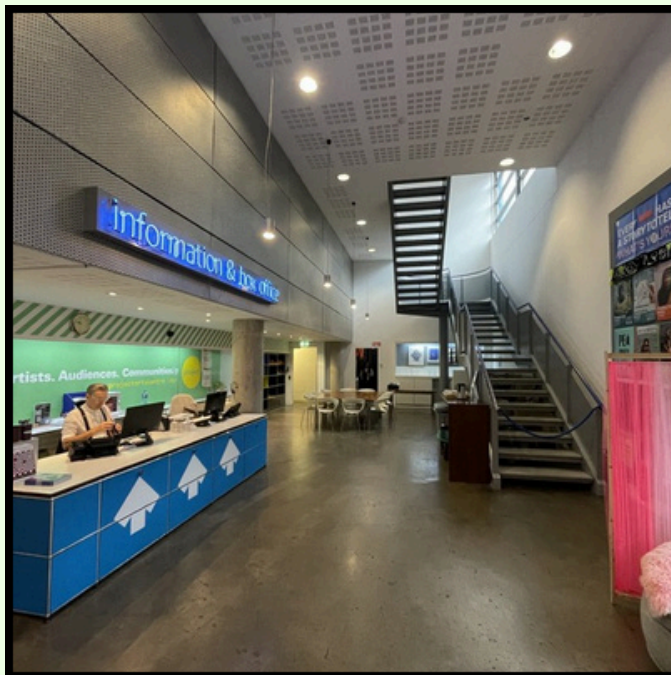

It is a big open space with seating areas, an information desk, a lift, stairs and access to toilets. The Gallery space is on this floor.

5 - There is a lift next to the entrance. You can use it to get to the first floor where our other performance space and bar.

You will only be able to go to Floor 0 and Floor 1. All other floors are for staff.

6 - This is the information desk and box office.

A member of staff will be behind the information desk. If you have any questions, they will be happy to answer you.

7 - Usually, there is a comfy seated area next to the entrance.

You are free to sit here whilst your are waiting for your show to begin. There will be other audiences waiting in the Lower Foyer.

8 - There is another seating area underneath the stairs. This area is a bit more private than other parts of the ground floor.

There are some plug points here if you need them.

9 - Toilets are through the yellow door in the corner of the room.

There are toilets for all genders and an accessible toilet.

10 - The entrance to the Gallery is to the left of box office and opposite the lift.

The gallery is free to enter.

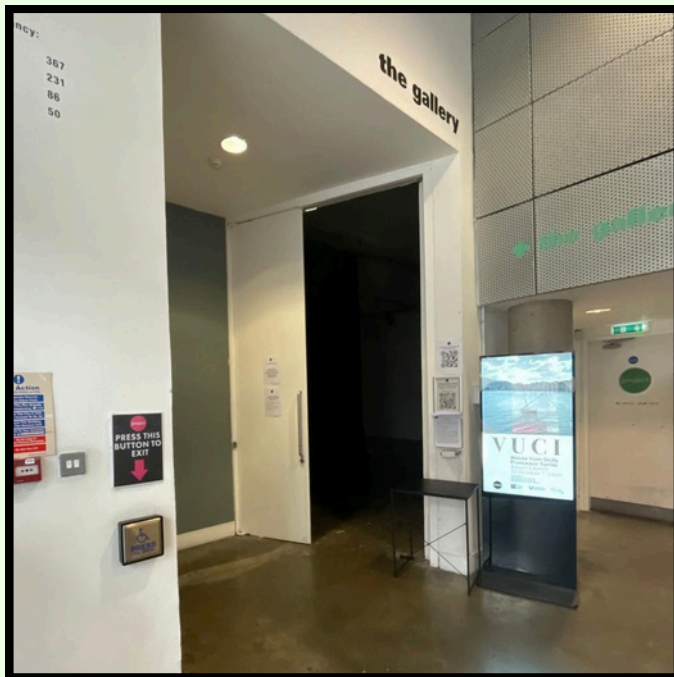

If the door is closed to the gallery space, it is not open.

11 - Written material is available upon entrance to the gallery space.

An audio version of this material is also available at the entrance via a QR code.

12 - Some sensory resources will be available at the gallery space.

If you use any of these resources, please return them as you leave.
